Hunger Fight

Food Packing Event

St. Peter's has partnered with local community organizations for 10 years for an annual food-packing event with Rise Against Hunger, a globally focused on organization to end hunger. This year, we committed to a new organization called Hunger Fight, based in Jacksonville, which aims to eradicate childhood hunger and illiteracy in Northeast Florida and Southeast Georgia.

Join us on Saturday, February 1 at 9:00 a.m. at the Atlantic Recreation Center for a 2-hour packing event. Hundreds of volunteers are needed!

A day or two before the shelter opens, you will receive a message inviting you to sign up for a three hour shift. You will be paired with an experienced volunteer each time. The shelter is at the MLK, Jr Center at 1200 Elm Street. For questions, email sflint@stpetersparish.org.

Dedicate Altar Flowers

Did you know that you can honor or remember a loved one by donating the altar flowers for worship? We have several Sundays available to do so. Please sign up using the form posted on the north wall of Burns Hall by the dish station or by contacting Patty Lanier at planier@stpetersparish.org.

Volunteer Support Needed

The work of St. Peter's is possible thanks to volunteer support from people like you! We need new office volunteers and money counters to serve in the church office, helping with the day-to-day workings of our parish. If you care about the details, please contact Mary Cone at mlkc1@yahoo.com or Lee Watanabe at lwatanabe@stpetersparish.org to learn more.

Our Hope House Teams need bakers, buyers and providers of yummy treats! The St. Peter's teams serve dinner two nights a month at the Salvation Army Hope House and could use your help to both provide a delicious dessert and help us to keep costs down. Please use the QR code to access the online sign up form or learn more.

Join the Love God, Love God's World Study

Do you want to join a class this year? Love God, Love God's World is a study published by the Episcopal Church. Its structure is similar to the popular Sacred Ground curriculum. It includes compelling films and readings, faith-based reflections, and discussion questions—each written by different contributors who draw from their own contexts and experiences. Sarah Flint leads this study on third Mondays at 7:00 p.m. This month we are on Session 5, but it's not too late to jump in (every session stands on its own). Sign up by emailing Sarah Flint.
